

1.

Make an ornament -- then give it away
to a neighbor.

2.

What do you get when you cross a snowman
with a vampire?
Answer: Frostbite.

3.

Create a snowscape
with shaving cream
and action figures

4.

Decorate every door
in your house.

5.

What do snowmen
eat for breakfast?
Answer: Snowflakes.

6.

Blindfold kids and have them guess holiday scents
like pine, gingerbread, holly,
mistletoe, and cinnamon.

7.

Write your letter to Santa.

8.

Grab some pals and have a holiday sing-along
at a local senior center.

9.

Write a job description
for Santa's Helpers.

10.

Make a gift for your teacher.

11.

Write a Christmas story together - - have each person add a line.

12.
Have your Mom help you write a holiday greeting to someone in the Armed Forces.

13.
While Christmas shopping, buy an extra toy and donate it to a charity.

14.
Watch your three favorite holiday movies -- in one night!

15.
Make a Christmas drawing -- use glitter to make the snow glisten and the stars twinkle.

16.
Go Christmas caroling in your neighborhood.

17.
Play Secret Santa to someone who could use some holiday cheer.

18.
Create homemade cards to give to friends and family.

19.
What do Santa's elves learn in the North Pole school?
Answer: The Elfabet

20.
Put on a play! Act out your family's favorite Christmas story. Invite grandparents or other relatives to be your audience.

21.
Celebrate the season's treats with an "eat dessert first" night. Munch on cookies, THEN have dinner.

22.
Organize a luminaria-making night for the whole neighborhood.

23.
Save a few snowballs in your freezer; have a snowball fight in June!

24.
At dinner, describe what you love best about each family member.